

Calendar For Aspirant

May

- Start Now, Do Not Wait for Last Minute
- Last Date to Register (CLAT, AILET, LSAT, and SLAT)
- Go for Counselling
- Rely on Expert's advice

June

- Examination Time (CLAT, AILET, LSAT, SLAT)
- Join Coaching Institute for Preparation
- Take Demo Classes, Find the right fit
- Need help, just ask
- Do Not Panic

July

- CLAT Counselling Round Begins
- Work on Your List of Preferred College
- Choose Wisely, Decision Making Time

August

- Focus and Work Hard
- Have a Well-Planned Study Routine
- State Law Entrance Exams Coming up (Delhi, Mumbai)

September

- Work more on your Preferred College list
- "I haven't Started Yet Either" —every student ever
- Make a Reading Habit, Read English Newspaper Everyday

October

- Brush up Your Knowledge
- Time Running Out
- Work on Your Legal Vocabulary / Phrases
- Study at least 6-7 hours

November

- Keep Track of all upcoming Entrance Exams
- Tip- Try to Complete the Syllabus 2 Months before the Exams.
- Don't Miss the Deadline

December

- Give 6 hours a day towards Preparing for your Goal
- Make Hand Written Notes, they are gold
- Do not Slack with Preparation hours,

January

- Keep Working on your Reading Skills
- Spend last two months Revising and practicing mock test
- Prepare Checklist of Documents you Will Need to apply

February

- Application Process opens CLAT, AILET, NLSAT, BLAT etc.
- Apply Based on your List of Preferred College

March

- Manage your law entrance preparation with school
- Divide your time accordingly
- Tip for Exam- do not Overthink while answering

April

- Tip-Give the exam with well rested mind and body
- Congratulations on being Promoted to a law student from an aspirant
- Stay in touch with your Mentor for further guidance